Community Action

Lake County Advocacy Council

The Lake County Advocacy Council is open to anyone who is eligible to receive services from the Lake County Board of Developmental Disabilities/Deepwood.

The council will discuss ways to positively impact the community and advocate for individuals with disabilities on a local and state level.

Join the Community Action Group!

As a member of the Community Action Group you can:

- Volunteer in the community
- Write to congressmen, representatives and other law makers
- Give feedback to Lake County Board of DD/Deepwood Administration about programs and services
- Educate others about the changes in laws that effect services and funding

Sound interesting to YOU? Plan to attend our meeting on September 11.

Advocacy Education

Lake County Advocacy Council

The Lake County Advocacy Council is open to anyone who is eligible to receive services from the Lake County Board of Developmental Disabilities/Deepwood. The council will plan and participate in self-advocacy classes.

If you have been a part of Aktion club, Student Council, or an advocacy group with a school or agency and want to join a county-wide advocacy group, then this is great opportunity for you.

Join the Advocacy Education Group!

The Education Group will visit and review existing advocacy programs, such as:

- Project Stir
- Academy for Leadership Abilities
- Pioneering Possibilities
- Learning to be a self-advocate

We will create an Advocacy program for Lake County .
