

Service & Support Administration

Larry Allen Technology Suite

The Tech Suite features an array of low, medium, and high assistive technology supports, ranging from adaptive eating utensils, emergency sensors, smart technology, and automatic door openers. Most of the technology items are readily available for purchase through Amazon and local retail establishments. The suite additionally offers access to remote technology supports that can allow the user to trial in real time.

How Can Assistive Technology Benefit Someone?

- Provide assessment of skills, abilities, and needs.
- Recommend technology supports and resources.
- Provide you, your family, and LCBDD Service & Support Administration with assistance with acquiring equipment.
- Provide general training on use of technology supports for individuals and staff.
